THE UNIVERSITY

Boston College is one of twenty-nine Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States. The university traditions of Boston College derive from four centuries of academic experience and educational idealism of the Society of Jesus, which since its foundation by Ignatius Loyola in 1534, has established and conducted institutions of higher learning throughout the world. The foundation of Boston College arose from the labor of the first Jesuit community in New England, established at St. Mary's, in Boston, in 1849. In 1859, John McElroy, S.J., first Superior of the Jesuit community at St. Mary's purchased the land and erected the collegiate buildings on Harrison Avenue, in Boston, the location of the college for fifty years.

On April 1, 1863, the College received from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts a university charter empowering the Board of Trustees to confer degrees usually granted by colleges in the Commonwealth, except medical degrees. This single restriction in the charter was removed by legislative amendment, approved April, 1908. John Bapst, S.J., was the first President of Boston College and inaugurated the program of collegiate instruction on September 5, 1864. In 1907, President Thomas I. Gasson, S.J., secured the land which is the site of the present campus at Chestnut Hill. In 1913, the College was moved to the Chestnut Hill campus.

New schools were added to the original College of Arts and Sciences. The Law School and the Evening College, both founded in downtown Boston in 1929, are now on the Chestnut Hill campus. The School of Social Work, founded in 1936, is presently at 126 Newbury Street, Boston. The College of Business Administration was founded in 1938. The School of Nursing, the School of Education, and the Graduate School of Business Administration were founded in later years in response to the educational needs of the nation.

Physical expansion came rapidly after World War II when Lyons, Fulton, and Campion Halls were erected. During the Presidency of Very Rev. Michael P. Walsh, S.J., Cheverus, Fenwick, and Fitzpatrick dormitories were built; McHugh Forum and Roberts Center were dedicated; Cushing Hall, McElroy Commons and the Carney Graduate Center were opened.

To keep pace with the educational needs of the nation and community, Boston College now is engaged in a Development Program in which more academic facilities are being added to the campus, including a Science Center, Library, Auditorium, Theater and Fine Arts Center, dormitories, Institute of Human Sciences, and School of Public Affairs.

From the first class of 22 young men, Boston College has grown in numbers, size, and prestige. The total enrollment is 10,500, although none of the schools and colleges has an enrollment of more than 2,000. The original faculty of six now numbers more than 700. In this university are students from nearly every state in the nation and from some 31 nations.

ACCREDITATION

Boston College is a member of, or accredited by, the following educational associations: The American Council of Education, the Association of American Colleges, the National Catholic Educational Association, the American Jesuit Educational Association, the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York, the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business, the Association of American Law Schools, the Section on Legal Education of the American Bar Association, the American Association of Schools of Social Work, the National Nursing Accrediting Service, the American Chemical Society, and other similar organizations.

THE LAW SCHOOL

The Trustees of Boston College, with the active support and cooperation of many eminent members of the bench and bar in Massachusetts, established the Boston College Law School in 1929. Formal instruction was commenced on September 26, 1929, and the first class was graduated on June 15, 1932. With the graduation of this first class, the Law School was officially approved by the Section on Legal Education of the American Bar Association. Upon its first application, in 1937, the School was elected to membership in the Association of American Law Schools. In 1954, on the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of its foundation, the Law School moved from downtown Boston to Thomas More Hall on the Campus at University Heights.

ACCREDITATION OF LAW SCHOOL

The Boston College Law School is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and approved by the American Bar Association and the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York, the only recognized accrediting agencies for law schools in the United States.

LOCATION

The Law School, located on the main campus of the university, combines the advantages of urban and suburban locale. It is far enough removed from city life to have the quiet that is needed for study, parking spaces and ready access to major highways (The Massachusetts Turnpike is five minutes away) that are lacking in urban areas. At the same time public transportation direct to downtown Boston is just across the street. The availability of Boston's cultural qualities, including the Symphony Orchestra, the many fine museums and libraries, and the host of other outstanding universities provides a stimulation unmatched elsewhere.

THOMAS MORE HALL

Thomas More Hall, occupied exclusively by the Law School, contains ample provisions for administrative and faculty offices and classrooms, a Law Library with a main Reading Room seating two hundred and forty, study carrels for forty-five students, a Browsing Room shelving quasilegal materials, and a Stack Room with a capacity of 250,000 volumes. In addition there is a Moot Court Room seating one hundred and fifty spectators, seminar rooms, and attractive lounges for the faculty, students, and administrative assistants. A students' Dining Hall seating three hundred, students' lockers and other conveniences make Thomas More Hall a completely self-contained unit for the Law School on the University Heights campus.

The new building is of contemporary architecture, but its stone work reflects the Collegiate Gothic of the undergraduate buildings on the Heights. It is named after Thomas More (1478-1535), lawyer and judge, humanist and humorist, Lord Chancellor of England, and one of the truly great figures of legal history.

The building is designed to provide every necessary and useful facility for students who wish to pursue the study of law in an atmosphere of scholarship and culture, surrounded by extraordinary architectural and natural beauty.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

The program and method of instruction employed in the Boston College Law School is designed to prepare the student to practice law wherever the Anglo-American system of law prevails. Hence, there is a thorough insistence upon the common law and upon the important statutory enactments of the federal and state governments.

THE THOMAS J. KENNY LIBRARY

The Thomas J. Kenny Memorial Library has a spacious Reading Room seating two hundred and forty students and individual study carrels accommodating forty-five students. On the same level with the Reading Room is the Clement Joseph Maney Browsing Room with an additional collection of quasi-legal materials. A two-level stack room below the Reading Room has a capacity of a quarter of a million volumes.

The Library contains the reports of all the state courts of last resort, the National Reporter System and the several series of annotated reports as well as a good collection of English and Canadian decisions.

The statutory section of the Library contains a complete collection of the current state and federal annotated codes as well as current English legislation.

In recognition of the development of public law and its increasing importance in the United States, the Library contains a large section of this material, particularly the decisions and orders of administrative bodies, state and federal, and the numerous loose-leaf services which make available all current laws, regulations, administrative interpretations and decisions in this field.

The Library contains a comprehensive collection of treaties and text books, legal journals and reviews, and the standard legal encyclopedias.

WINDOWS OF LIBRARY AT NIGHT

10:00 PM The Law Library is administered by a full-time librarian and a staff of assistants. It is open from 8:30 A.M. to 11:00 P.M., Mondays through Fridays; from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. on Saturdays; and from 2:00 P.M. to 8:00 on Sundays. During the Summer the Library is open during the day.

In addition to the Kenny Law School Library, the Bapst University Library of Boston College, which is situated on the Chestnut Hill campus, contains more than five hundred thousand volumes, is available to students of the Law School. Law Students also have access to the world-famous Public Library of the City of Boston, with its more than two million volumes, and to the Massachusetts State Library of more than six hundred thousand volumes.

Patrons, sponsors and friends of the Boston College Law School Library generously contribute gifts and books of ever increasing value.

PRE-LEGAL STUDIES

Boston College desires that its students come to the study of law with the broadest possible understanding of the divergent forces which impinge upon society and give it quality and direction. The School recognizes that the foundation for such understanding—so vital to the effective modern lawyer—normally is gained during the four year college program. Accordingly, while the School refuses to designate a particular collegiate program as the “best” preparation for the study of law, it strongly believes that no student should forego the indispensable generality of a wide liberal education for studies which might have the reputation of being particularly “legal” in nature. However, because the field of law spans the entire social and commercial processes of our society, there is no collegiate program which cannot serve as an appropriate vehicle for pre-legal training.

We believe that a student considering the relative merits of a collegiate pre-legal program can do no better than recall the words of Justice Frankfurter.

“No man can be a truly competent lawyer unless he is a cultivated man. If I were you, I would forget all about any technical preparation for the law. The best way to prepare for the law is to come to the study of the law as a well-read person. Thus alone can one acquire the capacity to use the English language on paper and in speech and with the habits of clear thinking which only a truly liberal education can give. No less important for a lawyer is the cultivation of the imaginative faculties by reading poetry, seeing great paintings, in the original or in easily available reproductions, and listening to great music. Stock your mind with the deposit of much good reading, and widen and deepen your feelings by experiencing vicariously as much as possible the wonderful mysteries of the universe, and forget all about your future career.”

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants for admission to the Boston College Law School as candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must possess a Bachelor's degree from an approved college or university.

LAW SCHOOL ADMISSION TEST

The Boston College Law School requires all of its applicants to take the Law School Admission Test which is given at the Boston College Law School on all four occasions when it is conducted at universities throughout the nation and in certain foreign centers. The test will be held at the Boston College Law School on Saturday, February 12, 1966; April 9, 1966; August 6, 1966; and November 12, 1966.

For information and application form write to the Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

Application must be made upon the official form: and, as noted therein:

1. Official transcripts of all collegiate, graduate and professional study must be sent directly to the Registrar of the Boston College Law School by the registrars of the institution in which such study has been done.

2. The recommendation form issued by the Law School must be sent directly to the Registrar.

3. The Educational Testing Service must be directed to report the applicant's Law School Admission Test score to the Boston College Law School.

As soon as the completed application forms, all requisite transcripts, and the application fee of $10 have been received, the applicant will be promptly advised by mail of the decision upon the application.

AUDITORS

A limited number of applicants, usually members of the bar, who do not wish to study for a degree, but who desire to enroll in specific courses may be admitted as auditors. Auditors must prepare regular assignments and participate in classroom discussions. They are not required to take examinations, but may elect to do so. Normally, credit will not be certified for auditing.

ADVANCED STANDING

An applicant qualified for admission who satisfactorily completed part of his law course in another approved law school, may be admitted to upper classes with advanced standing. At the minimum, two complete semesters will be required in residence at Boston College immediately preceding the award of a degree.

SCHOLARSHIP AND FINANCIAL AID

The following scholarships, financial aid and loans are available to students at the Law School:

1.) Fifteen Presidential Scholarships, established by the Trustees of Boston College. These are full scholarships to be awarded each year to students entering the Law School. Applicants must be outstanding in their college graduating class and must attain a high score in the Law School Admission Test. Beneficiaries are expected to achieve high scholastic standing and to participate in the work of the Law Review.

2.) The Keefe Scholarship, established in 1956 by the late Margaret M. Keefe in memory of The Keefe Family.

3.) The O'Connell Scholarship, established in 1946 by Patrick A. O'Connell of Boston, in memory of his son, Edmund Fabian O'Connell.

4.) Two academic awards of half tuition granted to the highest ranking non-scholarship students entering the second year class.

5.) The Walter R. Morris Scholarship, established by the friends of the late Professor Morris who served on the faculty of the Law School from 1929 to 1938.

6.) The John J. Flynn, Jr. Loan Fund, established by the past presidents of the Newton-Waltham-Watertown Bar Association in honor of one of their past presidents.

7.) The Parker Morris, Esq. Scholarship Fund.

8.) The Pitcoff Scholarship Fund. This scholarship was established by the family and friends of the late Robert S. Pitcoff who, having completed one year at the Boston College Law School, was killed in an auto accident September 1, 1964.

It is the donor's hope that recipients of such help would be encouraged to feel that, when they become financially able to do so, they should in turn help others by repayment or by addition to this fund.

9.) The Norfolk County Bar Association Loan Fund, established for worthy students residing in Norfolk County.

10.) Students at the Boston College Law School may obtain loans up to $1,000 for each year of three years of law school under an arrangement made by Boston College Law School, the Massachusetts Bar Association and the Chemical Bank, New York Trust Company. This plan utilizes scholarship funds from the Massachusetts Law Society and the Gerald P. Walsh Memorial Fund. A relatively low rate of interest on the loans is charged with the loan becoming due and payable five months after graduation; at that time the borrower agrees to pay 60 equal monthly payments over five years until the debt is discharged.

11.) American Bar Association Fund for Legal Education. Students who are in the second and third year of law school are eligible to borrow under this plan up to $1,500 each academic year.

12.) Honorable Harold A. Stevens Scholarship Fund, established in honor of Judge Stevens, graduate of the Boston College Law School in the Class of 1936, Judge, Supreme Court of New York, Appellate Division.

13.) In addition to loans available under the plan of the Massachusetts Bar Association each resident of Massachusetts may obtain loans up to $500 each year under the state sponsored Higher Education Loan Plan. Numerous other states also have loan programs that may be utilized at Boston College.

All students interested in scholarships, grants and loans are invited to fill out the application and discuss the matter with the dean or other official of the Law School. Federal loans are also available at Boston College.

HOUSING AND BOARDING FACILITIES

The Director of Resident Students, Boston College, Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts 02167, maintains a list of private homes, rooms, and apartments near Boston College where living facilities are available. Correspondence regarding this matter should be directed to this office, or to the Student Bar Association at the law school.

No difficulty has been experienced by law students in obtaining adequate and attractive living accommodations near the Boston College Law School.

All law students are eligible to utilize the extensive athletic facilities of the university.

REGISTRATION

Successful applicants must register personally at the regular registration period indicated in the current Law School Bulletin. Each applicant is required to present, before or at the time of registration, a recent unmounted passport-size photograph. There is no regular registration fee; but a student permitted to register after the regular registration period will be charged a late registration fee of $5.00.

GRADING SYSTEM

Academic standing is determined by written examinations conducted at the conclusion of each course. The quantitative unit of credit is the semester hour, which is equivalent to one hour of class work per week for one semester of not less than sixteen weeks duration. The qualitative standard determining academic standing, advancement and graduation, is the grade quotient as explained below.

Academic achievement in each course is indicated by the following grades, to which are assigned the following point values per semester hour:

A +	= 10	B +	= 7	C +	= 4	F	= 0
A	= 9	B	= 6	C	= 3	P	= X-1
A -	= 8	B -	= 5	D	= 2

The point value of the grade attained in each course is multiplied by the number of semester hours devoted to the course, the result indicating the number of grade points earned in the course. For any given period of time, academic standing is determined by dividing the total number of grade points earned during the period by the total number of semester hours undertaken. The result is the grade quotient, which is of greater importance than any individual course grade. The grade quotient is cumulative throughout the student's law school career; nevertheless students are required to attain a satisfactory grade quotient in each academic year.

Grade C indicates a satisfactory pass, grade D an unsatisfactory pass, and grade F a complete failure. The symbol P indicates a passing grade in a course originally failed; its value (X-1) is one point less than the value of the grade (X) attained in the re-examination. Thus, in a re-examination D=1, C=2, C+=3, and so forth. A student with an F grade if permitted to remain in the School, has the privilege of taking the next regular examination in the failed course. If this privilege is not exercised, or if the re-examination is failed, the original F becomes permanent. The symbol M indicates a missed examination. A student with a missed examination, who presents good cause in writing to the Dean within a reasonable time after the missed examination, will be granted the privilege of taking the next regular examination in the course. A student exercising the re-examination privilege must fulfill the current examination requirements of the course; special examinations are never given.

For advancement with satisfactory standing and for graduation a student must attain a grade quotient of 3.0 each marking period.

Regular attendance and diligent preparation of all assigned work is required. For excessive absences or inadequate preparation of class work a student may be excluded from the School by the Faculty or dropped from a course by the professor of the course for unsatisfactory application.

The academic standing of a student, at any given time, is determined by his grade quotient as follows: Above 6.9—summa cum laude; 6.6 to 6.9—magna cum laude; 6.0 to 6.5—cum laude; 5.0 to 5.9—Dean's list; 3.0 to 4.9—satisfactory; Below 3.0—unsatisfactory.

REINSTATEMENT

A student who has been excluded from the School because of an unsatisfactory grade quotient has the privilege of one written petition to the Faculty for reinstatement. The purpose of this privilege is solely to provide the excluded student with an opportunity to present to the Faculty specific facts, not contained in the academic record, which rebut the presumption of the record. Reinstatement is never granted unless the petition sustains the burden of proof that extraordinary circumstances, beyond the control of the student, have deprived him of a reasonable opportunity to prepare for the examination which caused his exclusion; and that these extraordinary circumstances are no longer operative.

The Faculty will not entertain petitions, from full-time students, which are based upon outside employment.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

All candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must follow the prescribed schedule of courses and must carry a full program during the regular academic year. This requirement may be varied, in the discretion of the Dean. The minimum period of required residence for the degree of Bachelor of Laws is three years (six full semesters).

Leave of absence from the Law School, with the right to re-enter and resume candidacy for a degree, will be granted for a good cause after an interview with the Dean. Except for unusual reasons approved by the faculty all students must complete the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Laws within four years of enrollment.

HONORS AND PRIZES

1.) An annual Honor Award established by the Class of 1952 to be given to the outstanding graduate of each succeeding class, on the composite basis of class standing, preparation of class assignments, contributing to class discussions, and participation in the extra-curricular activities organized for the advancement of the student body and the furtherance of Boston College ideals. Eligible students are recommended by an elected committee of the Senior Class, and the recipient is finally determined by a committee of the Dean and four Professors. The recipient's name is inscribed on a plaque in the Student's Lounge and he is awarded a gold key.

2.) A subscription for one year to the United States Law Week is offered by the Bureau of National Affairs to the graduating student who showed the most satisfactory progress during his senior year.

3.) Commencement prizes in substantial cash awards are given annually for outstanding student work through the generosity of Lyne, Woodworth and Evarts, Boston Law Firm, Thomas Macken Joyce, Esq., '41, John F. Cremens, Esq., '41, Fusaro and Fusaro, Worcester Law Firm, and the Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation of Richmond, Virginia.

4.) Through the generosity of Selwyn I. Braudy of the Class of 1939 an award is offered periodically in honor of Professor William J. O'Keefe who taught at the Law School from 1929 to 1959.

5.) The Lawyers' Co-operative Publishing Company annually awards bound volumes of the material in American Jurisprudence on certain selected subjects.

6.) The Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company sponsors an annual estate planning and drafting contest for the students of the Boston College Law School. The awards are offered as follows: First Prize, $250; Second Prize, $150; Third Prize, $100.

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

Programs for post-admission training are sponsored periodically by the Boston College Law School. These non-credit courses, conducted in collaboration with the practising bar, have proved to be most valuable for members of the legal profession. Lawyers interested in these offerings are invited to contact the Law School.

TUITION

Tuition for each semester is payable in advance of registration. Tuition for full-time students is $750.00 per semester. Tuition for a partial program is $60.00 per semester hour. There are no costs or fees aside from tuition except a graduation fee of $20.00.

WITHDRAWALS AND REFUNDS

Tuition is refundable subject to the following conditions:

- a.) Notice of withdrawal must be made in writing to the Dean.
- b.) The date of receipt of withdrawal notice will determine the amount of tuition refund.

Notice within two weeks of first classes	80%	tuition refund
Notice within three weeks of first classes	60%	tuition refund
Notice within four weeks of first classes	40%	tuition refund

Notice within five weeks of first classes 20% tuition refund
No refunds are allowed after fifth week of classes.

If the student does not elect to leave the resulting cash credit balance to his account, for subsequent use, he should notify the Treasurer in writing to rebate the cash balance on his account.

The Trustees of Boston College reserve the right to change the rate of tuition and fees and such changes may be made applicable to students already enrolled in the School.

THE ORDER OF THE COIF

The Order of the Coif, the national honorary society for law students, is designed to promote legal scholarship. The organization has chapters at about fifty of the nation's better law schools. Faculty members of the local chapter at Boston College Law School each year select those to be honored from among those seniors who are academically within the top ten percent of their class and who have actively participated in significant extra-curricular activity of a scholarly nature.

Induction ceremonies are held late each spring, at which time a distinguished member of the bench or bar is also ordinarily selected for honorary membership. All members upon induction commit themselves to carry out the highest scholarly, and public-service traditions of the legal profession. The combination of high standards for selection and the Order's nation-wide reputation makes membership the most esteemed honor a student can obtain while at the law school.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

The Boston College Student Bar Association is a member of the American Law Student Association, the student affiliate of the American Bar Association. The Association, whose members are all the students at the School, sponsors many co-curricular and extra-curricular activities during the year.

The Association, through the Chairman of the Board of Student Advisors who is an ex officio member of the Board of Governors, assists in the work of the first year study groups and the Wendell F. Grimes Moot Court Competition. The Association also conducts an extensive Forum series which attracts to the School outstanding speakers from the fields of law, government and business. The Student Bar Association aids in publishing the Law School newspaper, Sui Juris. During the course of the year, the Association sponsors a broad range of social activities including smokers, cocktail parties and dances. The fundamental aim of the Association is to inculcate in the students an awareness and consciousness of the many facets of the legal profession and to acquaint him, while yet a student, with the special values of an organized bar association.

The Law Wives' Club, an organization made up of all the students' wives, conducts social and cultural events throughout the school year.

LAW REVIEW

The students are responsible for the publication of the Boston College Industrial and Commercial Law Review four times each year. A senior

U. S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Abe Fortas, Fr. Drinan and Alumni Officers

Board of Editors chosen by the Editors of the prior year supervises the work of second and third year Staff members. Criteria for membership are academic achievement and contributions to the Law Review which meet standards set by the Board. Staff members and Editors write a substantial part of each issue of the Law Review.

The Law Review was established to achieve several purposes. First, it provides a laboratory where top students may pursue independent research, employ and perfect knowledge and skills acquired in course work and publish the fruits of their efforts for the benefit of the profession. Second, the Law Review is the highest honor as well as the greatest professional responsibility afforded by the Law School. As a result, successful membership is a significant factor in retention of Presidential Scholarships and in finding a place in the profession upon graduation. Third, the Law Review aids lawyers and judges alike in its thorough and well-reasoned treatment by leading outside authors as well as students of subjects within the ever expanding fields of industrial and commercial law.

Because the Uniform Commercial Code, containing comprehensive statutory rules for the conduct of commercial transactions, is well on its way to adoption by all of the states, it is given significant treatment in the Law Review. To meet special needs of commercial lawyers, the Law Review Board and Staff in 1962 prepared a special hard-bound volume, the UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE COORDINATOR, which was published commercially by a leading law book publisher. A similar volume with expanded coverage entitled THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE REPORTER DIGEST was published in 1965.

ANNUAL SURVEY

The Annual Survey of Massachusetts Law was established to meet the needs of practitioners within the Commonwealth. It consists of an annual compilation and analysis by experts of significant judicial and legislative developments within Massachusetts in important legal fields. A faculty Editor-in-Chief supervises publication. The Annual Survey Editor of the Law Review Board and members of the Law Review Staff assist the Faculty Editor and outside authors in their research, writing and editing.

SUI JURIS

Sui Juris is the news journal of the Student Bar Association and the Alumni. It is under the editorship of a student board selected by the Student Bar Association and is published five times during the school year. The primary purpose of Sui Juris is to inform the student body and the alumni of developments at the school and of newsworthy events concerning the alumni. The unique magazine format of this publication also affords a vehicle for publishing articles of general interest to the legal profession. Sui Juris is distributed without charge to the student body, alumni and friends of the law school and has a circulation of over four thousand. In 1965, Sui Juris was given a special award by the American Law Student Association an "outstanding publication utilizing a unique concept in format."

BOARD OF STUDENT ADVISERS

The Board of Student Advisers consists of upperclassmen chosen on the bases of academic achievement and demonstrated interest in law school programs. The Board is both an honor and a service organization which chooses its own officers, makes its own operating rules and determines the means for carrying out its duties. Responsibilities of the Board of Student Advisers include:

- (1) Participation with the Student Bar Association in a program of orientation and consultation for first year students;
- (2) Conducting the Wendell F. Grimes Moot Court Competition, and
- (3) Assistance to the Instructor in Research and Writing as advisers to first year students in writing projects and the Moot Court program.

WENDELL F. GRIMES COMPETITION

The Wendell F. Grimes Competition, named for the late professor who was for many years moderator of the moot court program, is the intraschool moot court competition.

A trial court decision in a hypothetical case is the subject of appeal. Teams of two participants prepare appellate briefs for each side of the case and orally argue before an "appellate court" in the McLaughlin Memorial Courtroom. Both briefs and oral presentations are evaluated to determine winners in each round of the competition. Finalists are awarded trophies and the winners' names are engraved on a permanent trophy. Faculty members, practicing attorneys and judges from state and federal courts serve as judges in successive rounds of the competition.

Participation in moot court requires the kinds of research, preparation, advocacy and legal skills sought by firms, government agencies and courts in filling positions for law graduates.

NATIONAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION

Each year a team of three students from Boston College represents the law school in the National Moot Court Competition sponsored by the Young Lawyers' Committee of the Bar Association of the City of New York. Some 100 of the nation's law schools participate in the Competition which was inaugurated in 1950 to help develop the level of appellate advocacy among law students. For purposes of the National Competition, the country is divided into fifteen regions. In each region elimination rounds of argument are held among the participating schools in the region. The winners of regional rounds advance to the final rounds which are held in New York City in December. The winner of the final round is the national champion.

The art of appellate advocacy, like all arts, is best acquired and perfected by actual experience. The National Moot Court Competition provides a unique opportunity for acquiring this experience and students are encouraged to seek membership on the team. This membership is restricted, here at Boston College, to students who have participated in the Grimes Competition.

PLACEMENT SERVICE

The effective placement of every graduate of the Law School is regarded by the Dean and the faculty as a continuing responsibility. The Law School maintains a placement office to help students find advantageous employment after graduation. This office is under the direction of the Associate Dean. Other members of the faculty are available for consultation.

Each year interviews are held with every member of the graduating class to ascertain their career objectives. Moreover, a complete placement file is maintained on each student so that his qualifications and objectives may be matched with prospective placement situations as they develop.

Representatives of leading law firms and government agencies regularly visit the Law School to interview candidates for prospective placements. Recent graduates of the Law School have obtained an ever increasing number of graduate fellowships, judicial clerkships and other significant positions.

Summer positions in law firms after the second year of Law School are available. An increasing number of appointments in student internships in legal aid groups, federal and state courts are also available.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The 2660 living graduates of the Boston College Law School are members of the School's Alumni Association. This organization helps in placement work, brings outstanding speakers to dinner gatherings of the Alumni, sponsors regional meetings and seeks in many ways to enhance the prestige and advance the interests of the Boston College Law School.

The 1963 Alumni Directory has proved to be especially valuable to the alumni of the school who practice law in most of the states of the Union.

The Alumni Association cooperates closely with the Annual Giving Program of the Law School and is largely responsible for its ever increasing success.

The major part of the course deals with business corporations; their organization and promotion; corporate powers, distribution between shareholders, directors and officers, mode of exercising same; voting trusts; duties of directors, remedies available to shareholders for enforcement of same; creation, maintenance, decrease and increase of corporate capital. Partnerships and other unincorporated associations are treated comparatively, primarily in the early stages of the course, with emphasis on the choice of form of doing business.

CHURCH-STATE SEMINAR

2 Sem. Hrs.

An analysis of all of the decisions of the United States Supreme Court construing the establishment and free exercise of religion clauses of the First Amendment. An investigation into the relationship of these two clauses. An evaluation of Federal and state legislation designed to achieve a secular objective through the instrumentality of a Church-related agency.

CIVIL PROCEDURE

5 Sem. Hrs.

An introduction to the rules of law governing the conduct of litigation. After an overview of the entire sequence of events from commencement to final disposition of a lawsuit, the following topics are considered in detail: pleadings; discovery and other pre-trial devices; summary disposition without trial; the trial, including rulings on motions; appellate review; the effect of prior adjudications; the jurisdiction of courts; and multiple parties and causes of action. Also introduced are the law-equity distinction and the division of business between federal and state courts. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure are emphasized to give a rounded view of a single modern procedural system, but other procedural arrangements are also examined.

CIVIL RIGHTS SEMINAR

2 Sem. Hrs.

Selected legal aspects of civil rights are discussed in detail with the content of the course varying annually.

COMMERCIAL LAW

5 Sem. Hrs.

The legal and commercial problems in transactions with personal property, including distribution of goods and services, role of commercial paper and secured and unsecured credit. The core of the course is the Uniform Commercial Code. Effort is directed to developing skills in statutory construction and in the solution of pragmatic commercial problems.

COMMERCIAL TRANSACTIONS IN LAND

2 Sem. Hrs.

A course in seminar form designed to explore modern applications of vendor-purchaser law. Purchase and sale agreements, mortgages, and title security are related to modern federal and state tax, mortgage insurance and housing law. The commonly used forms of ownership of real estate—trusts, corporations, cooperatives, condominiums, and others—are explored. Reports are made in class and a final paper on an appropriate subject is required.

CONFLICT OF LAWS

3 Sem. Hrs.

The law applicable to transactions having contacts with more than one state. The course considers such problems as the following: domicile; classification and renvoi; substance and procedure; choice of law rules applied with respect to torts, workmen's compensation, contracts, property, marriage and divorce; and the influence of the Constitution upon conflict of laws problems.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

5 Sem. Hrs.

The doctrine of judicial review of legislation. Reciprocal immunities of the federal and state governments. Express and implied powers of the federal government. The commerce clause as a source of federal power and as a limitation upon the power of states. A study of the constitutional provisions in aid of individual rights and privileges, particularly the due process clause and the equal protection clause.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW SEMINAR

3 Sem. Hrs.

A seminar in which are considered various current problems of public law, particularly in areas not treated in other courses. Members of the seminar go through the various steps of certiorari and appeal practice in constitutional litigation before the Supreme Court, and prepare papers on assigned topics or topics of their own selection.

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge
Commencement Speaker

An examination of problems arising out of the promotion, organization, management, re-organization and dissolution of the corporate entity. Liabilities of the promoter; rights, liabilities and interests of the Shareholders; preemptive rights; Capital Stock, classes and types, rights and interests thereof. Special consideration of corporate distributions and redemptions. Organic changes in the corporation; mergers, consolidations, sales of assets or stock and recapitalizations. The amendment power and dissolution.

CORPORATE REORGANIZATION

3 Sem. Hrs.

A consideration of the fundamental problems in corporate changes, including study of the corporate and bankruptcy law affecting such changes. The tax effects of reorganizations are studied in detail. Attention is also given to policy limitations on corporate changes as affected by the anti-trust laws and securities regulation.

CORPORATE TAXATION

3 Sem. Hrs.

Tax problems in connection with the organization, operation, purchase and sale, reorganization and liquidation of corporations, and of corporate dividends, including stock dividends, redemptions, and distributions in partial and complete liquidation. Tax treatment of business purchase agreements, collapsible corporations, personal holding companies and corporations with improper accumulated earnings.

CREDITORS' RIGHTS

3 Sem. Hrs.

The collective rights of creditors are considered, including compositions, creditors' agreements, assignments for the benefit of creditors, and arrangements. Primary emphasis is given to the first seven chapters of the Bankruptcy Act. Certain rights of individual creditors are also considered.

CRIMES

2 Sem. Hrs.

General principles underlying the use of the criminal law are examined, especially as these are involved in the sentencing responsibilities of legislatures, courts and administrators. The nature and scope of several defenses as well as the substantive offenses are considered in detail.

CRIMINAL LAW SEMINAR

2 Sem. Hrs.

Examination of selected problems of criminal law and criminal law administration in the light of relevant criminological knowledge. Such questions as the admissibility of confessions in view of the psychodynamics of the confession process and various aspects of psychopathy are covered. Substantial research into extra-legal sources is required for a research paper.

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

2 Sem. Hrs.

The legal requirements of the criminal process relating to arrest, interrogations, trial and other procedures derived from constitutional, statutory and common law sources. Emphasis is made in relating the law to relevant criminological material.

DAMAGES

2 Sem. Hrs.

General principles of damages: value, certainty, avoidable consequences, interest and expenses of litigation. Material will also be selected from the following topics: Damages in tort actions (exemplary damages, personal injuries, wrongful death, defamation, deceit, injuries to the interests of owners of personal property and real property); Damages for Breach of Contract (restriction to foreseeable losses and other standard rules operative in contract cases, loss of future performance, construction contracts, liquidated damage clauses).

ESTATE AND GIFT TAXATION

2 Sem. Hrs.

A consideration of the fundamentals of taxation on transfers at death and during the life of the transferor, including transfers in contemplation of death, with life estate retained, and with the retention of powers. The estate and gift tax effects on special types of property holding, such as joint tenancy, powers of appointment, and life insurance contracts are also considered. The use of the marital deduction and problems arising from transfers for an adequate and full consideration are discussed.

ESTATE PLANNING

3 Sem. Hrs.

An examination of the various methods of preserving and disposing of wealth to benefit the family group. The uses of the will, inter vivos revocable and irrevocable trusts, non-trust gifts, the different kinds of insurance, and forms of concurrent ownership as instruments in the estate plan. Analysis of the impact of estate, inheritance, gift and income taxes on the disposition of property under different plans. An examination of estate plans with emphasis on draftmanship and the desirability of the different modes of procedure open to the estate planner. Special consideration of future interest problems, powers of appointment, disposition of business interests, the marital deduction multiple state death and income taxation of dispositions of property and charitable gifts. Selecting fiduciaries and granting them administrative powers.

EVIDENCE 3 Sem. Hrs.

Law and fact, functions of the judge and the jury; testimonial, circumstantial, and real evidence; relevancy, competency and privilege; writings; examination of witnesses, offer of evidence, exceptions and review of questions of law and fact.

FAMILY LAW 2 Sem. Hrs.

A study of the civil law of persons and domestic relations at common law and under modern statutes. The laws concerning marriage and divorce, separation and annulment. The parent and child relationship; infants and adoptions; effect upon property, contracts and torts. Ethical obligations of lawyers and judges respecting separation, divorce and annulment.

FEDERAL COURTS AND JURISDICTION 3 Sem. Hrs.

An analysis of the function of the federal courts in the operation of the federal system, with particular emphasis on the distribution of power between federal and state courts and the limitations on federal judicial power, special attention is directed to the role of the Supreme Court in umpiring the federal system; related problems of federal procedure are also considered.

INCOME TAXATION 2 Sem. Hrs.

A fundamental course in federal income taxation. A study of source materials of federal taxation, such as legislative materials, the Internal Revenue Code, and Treasury Regulations. Tax procedure; the organization of the Internal Revenue Bureau; and the function of federal courts in tax matters. Constitutional and interpretative questions arising from the federal income tax provisions.

INSURANCE 2 Sem. Hrs.

An examination of the rules, principles and concepts of insurance law; the formation and regulation of the insurance carrier; the special characteristics and requirements of the insurance contract. Particular attention is given to the construction and enforcement of insurance contracts, to the legal devices upon which the insurer relies in the selection and control of risks and to the inter-relationship of insurance and the insurance carriers with customary public practices. Also considered are the problems of premium rate determination, the anti-trust aspects of concerted rate-making and the effectiveness of insurance in achieving economic and social objectives.

INTERNATIONAL LAW 3 Sem. Hrs.

An introductory course, treating of the principles and practice of the law governing inter-State relations. The course will consider such topics as the nature and sources of international law, international claims, treaties and other international agreements, recognition of States and governments, territory, jurisdiction of States, nationality, peaceful settlement of international disputes, and war.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS 2 Sem. Hrs.

A seminar which will study some of the more difficult legal problems facing American business enterprises engaged in activities in other countries. After examining the principles controlling the scope and effect of national law upon international transactions, attention will be given to a variety of specific problems, including an examination of the possibilities available for the organization of business abroad, the protection of intangible industrial property, the reach of United States and EEC antitrust statutes, and the taxation of foreign income.

JURISPRUDENCE 2 Sem. Hrs.

A fundamental course in legal philosophy. Among the problems considered are: the Austinian theory of law and its modern counterparts, historical jurisprudence, natural law philosophy, modern American legal philosophies, law and economic life, the relation of law and morality, and problems of justice. The course utilizes cases from different branches of the law to test the principles expounded in the various schools of legal thought.

LABOR LAW 3 Sem. Hrs.

Introductory consideration of organized labor in a free enterprise society. Establishment of collective bargaining including representation and bargaining status under the National Labor Relations Act. Nature of the collective bargaining process, collective bargaining agreements and the administration thereof pursuant of grievance machinery and arbitration. Legal limitations on employer and union economic pressure. Legal controls which are applicable to intra union relationship.

LABOR LAW SEMINAR 2 Sem. Hrs.

This advanced labor law course is available to students who have completed the basic course in labor law; it is primarily concerned with the problems of the National Labor Relations Board practice and procedure and the lawyers part in the collective bargaining process; transcripts of fictitious Board hearings are examined and form the basis for discussion and reports. State Labor Relations Acts and developments in the field of arbitration are examined; students are required to write class papers on problems of first impression in the field of labor relations.

LAND USE CONTROL AND PLANNING

2 Sem. Hrs.

A course in a combined classroom and seminar form designed to explore in depth various problems in zoning, eminent domain, urban redevelopment, subdivision control and other public and private law areas affecting land use, with a concurrent study of underlying social and economic policy problems and planning concepts operative in these areas. Students are required to submit a paper and will be assigned research topics for presentation at class meetings.

LEGAL ACCOUNTING

2 Sem. Hrs.

A study of basic bookkeeping procedures and the mechanics of financial statement preparation followed by case studies of the legal bases of accounting principles. The focus is on the area of accounting judgments and their related legal problems rather than on the technical aspects of accounting theory. No previous knowledge of accounting is required.

LEGAL RESEARCH AND WRITING

1 Sem. Hr.

A course in which first-year students are divided into seminar size groups for an analysis of the manner of reading and briefing cases, an intensive study of the tools of legal research and their use, an introduction to the techniques of legal writing including legal memoranda and appellate briefs.

PROPERTY

5 Sem. Hrs.

A course that covers basic personal and real property law. Personal property includes coverage of the concepts of possession and relativity of title, using primarily bailment and gift materials. Real property includes an historical study of the development of the land law, the more elementary aspects of future interests, basic vendor-purchaser and landlord-tenant law, and study of non-possessory interests in land.

RESTITUTION

2 Sem. Hrs.

Material will be selected from the following topics: Restitution as an alternative remedy for tort; Equitable accounting, the constructive trust and equitable liens; Legal and equitable remedies on rescission for fraud; Benefits conferred under agreements; Unsolicited benefits and the volunteer; Mistake in bargaining transactions; Mistake in gift transactions; Defective capacity; Duress; Illegality.

SECURITIES REGULATION

2 Sem. Hrs.

A survey of the statutes administered by the Securities and Exchange Commission, with particular reference to (1) the registration and prospectus requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 and the related exemptions, (2) the effect of Federal statutes upon common law standards of disclosure in the purchase and sale of securities and (3) the duties of fair dealing and disclosure imposed by Federal law upon corporate management in its relations with stockholders.

TAXATION

4 Sem. Hrs.

A fundamental course in federal taxation. A study of source materials of federal taxation, such as legislative materials, the Internal Revenue Code, and Treasury Regulations. Tax procedure; the organization of the Internal Revenue Bureau; and the function of federal courts in tax matters. Constitutional and interpretative questions arising from the federal estate, gift, and income tax provisions. Problems in computation of estate, and income taxes are assigned to develop familiarity with federal tax forms and their use.

TORTS

6 Sem. Hrs.

Assault, battery, false imprisonment, trespass to land and chattels, and intentional infliction of mental suffering. An intensive study of the law of negligence, or accident law; an analysis of the concept; the measure of damages in personal injury litigation. Survival and wrongful death actions. The concept of strict liability. Nuisance law. The tort liability of owners and occupiers of land, or manufacturers, contractors, and suppliers of chattels. Misrepresentation, libel and slander, invasion of the right of privacy, malicious prosecution and abuse of process, and interference with contractual and other advantageous relations.

TRIAL PRACTICE

2 Sem. Hrs.

This course deals with problems of proof and persuasion in the trial of actions. The function and responsibility of the trial lawyer are considered, together with intensive consideration of the methods of developing facts at both the trial and pre-trial stages. Emphasis is on assigned problems which require practical application of rules of procedural and substantive law in a typical trial context. This course is offered in small sections to afford each student ample opportunity to participate in demonstrations of trial practices.

TRADE REGULATION

3 Sem. Hrs.

General survey of trade regulation by public and private power; the Sherman Act: monopolization, contract, combination and conspiracy; certain problems as affected by the Clayton Act, Federal Trade Commission Act, and Robinson Patman Act including: patent, copyright and trade mark use; tying agreements and exclusive dealing arrangements; resale price maintenance and discriminatory pricing; mergers; unfair competition.
